

Welcome to the Red Squirrels United autumn newsletter!

October 2019

Free autumn webinar series

There are two more webinars still to come in this autumn series. Do reserve your place on the following:

- Wednesday 13 November (6.30pm - 8pm) Woodland management and red squirrel breeding with Charles Dutton, Trustee of the European Squirrel Initiative and Red Squirrel Survey Trust
- Tuesday 26 November (6pm - 7.30pm) Countryside Stewardship \(CS Woodland Options\) grant scheme with Heinz Traut, Red Squirrel Conservation Officer at Red Squirrels Northern England

Save the date!

We are counting down to the final Red Squirrels United Knowledge Fair! Pop Saturday 22 - Sunday 23 February in your diary. This final event will be taking place in Newcastle. Booking forms and further information to follow.

© Conor McKinney

What makes the red squirrel conservation world go round?

For Red Squirrel Awareness Week (which took place last month), Programme Manager, Nikki Robinson reflected on the vital role people play in red squirrel conservation. Read her blog here.

My volunteer journey

Chris Harris, volunteer with Mid Wales Red Squirrel Partnership talks about what inspired him to get involved with red squirrel conservation and the importance of community engagement. Read his blog here.

© Holly Peek